

Lunch seminar on Tax and Legal Implications of International Assignments

Assignments to and from Hong Kong remain popular. However, they often result in lengthy administrative efforts and unnecessary expected costs.

On 14 March 2017, WTS and Tanner De Witt jointly held a lunch seminar at the German Chamber of Commerce, Hong Kong on “Tax and Legal Implications of International Assignments in Hong Kong”.

Our Ms. Connie Lee, Head of Tax and Mr. Russell Bennett, Partner at Tanner De Witt presented the following topics :

- Tips for a successful work visa application
- How will the introduction of Automatic Exchange of Information (AEOI) in Hong Kong affect expatriates?
- How to structure the remuneration package for expatriates?
- Impact of the 2017/18 Budget announcement on expatriates
- Secondment arrangements and the preservation of employment period
- Governing law of the contract and of the employment
- Remedies and rights; employment protection in the 'home' country
- Mandatory law protection in Hong Kong.
